By Appointment.

General Post Office and Entrance to Governor's Residence. Colombo is the capital and the principal seaport of Ceylon. In the quarter of the city called "the Fort" are extensive barracks and most of the principal hotels. Here also are situated Queen's House, the Governor's residence, the fine General Post Office and the Custom House. Opposite the Post Office is the Jubilee Garden, the gift of Lord Stanmore, who was Governor 1883-1888.
